06/13/18		Ending Balance		$832.42

OLD BUSINESS:

Radio Drill:

The radio drill was short because dispatch was busy.

2018 MABAS Card Update:

There was discussion regarding changing the dates on the cards so Wayne Kinnally can send them to the State. Ken Kortenhof will PDF the cards and e-mail them to Wayne Kinnally.

WI CAMS:

Tabled to next meeting.

Entering MABAS Calls into Database:

Departments need to enter all MABAS calls in a database. Only the departments that had the call have to enter the call into the database. Wayne Kinnally passed out an instruction sheet on how to enter a MABAS call.

COMMITTEE REPORTS:

MABAS Wisconsin:

MABAS Wisconsin has not scheduled the expected April/May meeting yet. The MABAS Conference is August 9th, 10th and 11th, registration is open. Wayne Kinnally went over the conference timeline. MABAS Wisconsin also recommends attending the statewide WISCOM listening sessions. Friday, June 15, 2018 is the next listen session at the Oneida County Law Enforcement Center from 3:00pm to 5:00pm.

Training Committee:

Nothing to report.

Dispatch:

Chief Pocket stated Little Rice Fire Department does not receive pages from Minocqua Dispatch. Ken Korten Hof will pass that information on to Minocqua.

NEW BUSINESS:

Fall Drill:

It was the consensus of the group to conduct a fall MABAS exercise. Steve Siefert suggested having the exercise at the Rhinelander-Oneida County Airport in September or October. Ken Korten Hof will contact the new airport manager for permission.

MABAS Calls:

- Newbold Fire Department- May 15, 2018, Newbold Fire Department requested a MABAS alarm for a residential structure fire on Barber Drive. The MABAS call went well.

MABAS Tips:

Wayne Kinnally discussed how Fire Departments should prepare to respond to a MABAS call. Suggestions include practice, taking part in the communication drill even if the department is unable to attend the meeting. Steve Seifert discussed how Newbold Fire Department Command Staff communicate with each other when a MABAS call is made and even prior to their department being involved.

Next Meeting:

The next meeting is Wednesday, August 8th, 2018 at 6:30pm at the Newbold Fire Department Station 1. Radio drill will begin at 6:00pm.

Future Agenda Items:

To be determined
