The CVSO updated the Commission on changes to the DAV van due to COVID. Only three people are allowed on the van at one time and all of them must wear masks. Additionally, the driver has to screen riders before they get on the van to make sure they have no COVID symptoms.

Trevor Blake, Northwoods National Cemetery Manager, updated the Commission on the cemetery. At this time, the cemetery is ready to open but they have to get vendors in place to do opening and closing of graves, set headstones, and do grounds and maintenance before burials can begin.

The CVSO informed the Commission about the Commitment to Veteran Support and Outreach Act that Senator Tammy Baldwin sponsored. If approved, the federal government would provide $50 million dollars to states with Veterans Service Officers over the next five years to help serve veterans. The Oneida County Board approved a resolution supporting this legislation on August 18, 2020.

The CVSO informed the Commission about a Veterans Open House being held on Veterans Day this year at the Rhinelander Veterans Center 1002 Coon Street. The event will run from 9:00 am-3:00 pm and will give veterans an opportunity to join a veterans service organization and/or join the local honor guard. The CVSO will be there to provide information on veterans benefits as well as the new national cemetery.

The Commission reviewed the Veterans Service Office 2019 Annual Report.

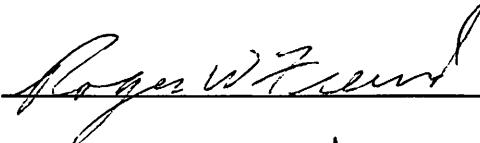

The Commission reviewed the current Veterans Service Office 2020 budget status.

The Commission reviewed the Veterans Service Office 2021 budget proposal. The CVSO has a budget hearing for this proposed budget on Monday, October 5.

The CVSO informed the Commission about a new customer survey the office has on their web page.
